Happy Holidays

We hope you have had a successful beginning to the season and your teams are on their way. Whether it is smooth sailing, or you have encountered some bumps along the way, we have some holiday presents to help make your experience great. The Resources tab on www.createme.org has lots of new resources that all team managers can use. The resources available include:

Team Manager Information has a video on team manager roles as well as information on Interference, Clarifications, Instant Challenge resources and help for DI Improv.

Team Manger Specifics has a link to Lorrie Benn's email, managerresources@createme.org. You can always ask anyone connected with CreateME, but Lorrie is dedicated to helping team managers with questions and concerns.

Team Manager Newsletters has links to Newsletters from September 2015 to the present. These newsletters include helpful information to new and experienced team managers alike.

The Instant Challenge Library gives you access to hundreds of instant challenges. You'll never be at a loss for instant challenges again!

Access to DISC (Destination ImagiNation Support Committee). DISC provides resources on all different kinds of resources, both general and specific.

Although it is not under the Resources tab, keep an eye on the Calendar of Events. Take advantage of the events offered throughout the year.

These are our presents to you. Enjoy, and if you find anything missing, please let us know.
